Introduction

Canadian Centre for Occupational Health and Safety is pleased to present to Parliament its annual report on the administration of the Access to Information Act for the fiscal year commencing April 1, 2016, and ending March 31, 2017.

The purpose of the Access to Information Act is to provide a right of access to information in records under the control of a government institution. The Act maintains that government information should be available to the public; that necessary exceptions to the right of access should be limited and specific; and that decisions on the disclosure of government information should be reviewed independently of government. This report is prepared in accordance with Section 72 of the Access to Information Act.

Section 72 of the Act requires that the head of every federal government institution submit an annual report to Parliament on the administration of the Act during the fiscal year. This report outlines CCOHS' accomplishments in carrying out its access to information responsibilities and obligations during the 2016–2017 reporting period.

CCOHS has not implemented any new policies, guidelines and procedures during the year.

The Canadian Centre for Occupational Health and Safety (CCOHS) is a departmental corporation under Schedule II of the Financial Administration Act, created by Parliament in April 1978 to promote the right of Canadians to a healthy and safe working environment. CCOHS is governed by a tripartite council with representatives of employers, workers and the governments (federal, provincial and territorial) and is accountable to the Minister of Employment, Workforce Development and Labour and Parliament. CCOHS is subject to the Access to Information Act and Privacy Act (ATIP).

CCOHS' mandate is to serve Canadians - and the world - with credible and relevant tools and resources to improve workplace health and safety programs. We believe that all Canadians have a fundamental right to a healthy and safe working environment. Through our programs, services, knowledge, commitment, and action, CCOHS will continue its efforts to advance health and safety in the workplace.

CCOHS is Canada's national occupational health and safety resource which is dedicated to the advancement of occupational health and safety performance by providing necessary services including information and knowledge transfer; training and education; cost-effective tools for improving occupational health and safety performance; management systems services supporting health and safety programs; injury and illness prevention initiatives and promoting the total well-being – physical, psychosocial and mental health - of working people. The Centre was created to provide a common focus for and coordination of information in the area of occupational health and safety.

To do this, CCOHS organizes its programs and services to achieve the following strategic outcome:

Improved workplace conditions and practices that enhance the health, safety and well being of working Canadians.

2016-2017 Highlights and Accomplishments

Access to Information and Privacy Unit

CCOHS' CFO, who is also the ATIP Coordinator, has been delegated by the President and Chief Executive Officer to exercise authority for all sections of the ATIP Acts with the exception of 8(2)(e) of the Privacy Act.

The CFO is accountable for the development, coordination and implementation of effective policies, guidelines, systems and procedures to ensure the President and CEO's responsibilities under the Act are met and to enable appropriate processing and proper disclosure of information. The Coordinator is also responsible for related policies, systems and procedures emanating from the Act.

As CCOHS is a small department with very few requests, the CFO spends minimal time administering the Act. Support is also provided by an administrative assistant.

The activities of CCOHS for ATIP are:

- processing requests under the Act;
- representing CCOHS in dealings with the Treasury Board of Canada Secretariat, the Information Commissioner and other government departments and agencies regarding the application of the Act as it relates to CCOHS;
- responding to consultations submitted by other federal institutions on CCOHS documents under consideration for release;
- preparing statistical and annual reports to Parliament and other statutory reporting requirements, as well as other material that may be required by central agencies;
- developing and maintaining policies, procedures and guidelines to ensure the Act is respected by departmental staff;
- promoting awareness of the Act within the Department to ensure responsiveness to the obligations imposed on the government;
- monitoring departmental compliance with the Act, regulations and relevant procedures and policies; and
- a monthly summary of our ATIP requests are posted online.
